

January 26, 1961

The POST

PARK'S NEXT SCHOOL RISING. The foundation in place, walls will rise rapidly for parochial school addition to Concordia Lutheran church, 7424 North Second. Costing $125,000 to $140,000 the school will open in September, 1961; within year or two will encompass grades 1 through 9. Church has about 700 members now, eventually will accommodate 2,500. Men of congregation are doing much of the construction labor, just as they did in building attractive brick church and matching parsonage. Pastor is the Rev. Ronald H. Lawrenz.